S. S. B. No. 40.] [By Committee.

A BILL

TO BE ENTITLED

An Act to provide for the incorporation of loan and building companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That any number of persons, not less than three nor more than thirteen, may organize themselves into a corporation for the purpose of receiving investment deposits, loaning money or building and improving real estate. The manner and method of organizing such corporations shall be the same as provided by law for the organization of private corporations in Chapter 2, Title XXI, of the Revised Statutes of the State, but no charter of such loan and building company shall be accepted and filed by the Secretary of State until he has satisfactory evidence that fifty thousand (50,000) dollars of the capital stock has been subscribed for and not less than ten per cent. paid in cash, and the unpaid portion shall be liable for the debts of any corporation authorized under this act.

Sec. 2. The business and property of such loan and building companies shall be managed by a board of directors, not less than three nor more than thirteen, who shall be capital stock holders; the first board to be designated in the articles of incorporation, who shall, at their first meeting and annually thereafter, as their by-laws shall require, elect from their number a president, vice-president, cashier or secretary, and elect or appoint such other officers or agents as they may deem expedient and their by-laws may provide for.

Sec. 3. Such loan or building companies shall have authority to issue certificates of deposit investment or loan shares in any amount the business may demand, and with such interest and under such regulations and contracts as the by-laws prescribe, but such regulations and contract shall be plainly printed on the certificate of deposit, investment or loan shares, and no amendment to the by-laws or alteration in the regulations shall in any manner effect the contract as stated in such certificate of deposit, investment or loan shares. On all loans made by the companies doing business under this act, lawful interest may be charged and collected monthly until the same has been fully liquidated without the same being deemed usurious.

Sec. 4. Companies formed and doing business under this act shall be bodies corporate in fact and in name; may have a common seal; may, in any court of law or equity in this State, sue and be sued; may own, possess so much real and personal estate, for the exercise of their business, whether by grant, devise, gift or otherwise; may, from time to time, sell and dispose of the same when not required for the use of the corporation; may borrow money and pledge their franchises and property, both real and personal, to secure the payment thereof; and may have and exercise all the powers necessary and requisite to carry into effect the objects for which they may be formed, as named in their charter.

Sec. 5. The capital stock holders of any corporation formed under this act, or the directors, if the certificate of incorporation so provide, shall have the power to make such by-laws as they deem proper for the management of the affairs of the company, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, for the purpose of carrying on all kind of business within the objects and purposes of such company.

SENATE BILL NO. 40—COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE ADOPTED.

COMMITTEE REPORT.

(By unanimous consent.)

Committee Room,
Austin, Texas, March 9, 1901.

Hon. J. N. Browning, President of the Senate.

SIR: Your Committee on Public Lands and Land Office, to whom was referred

Senate bill No. 242, being a bill to be entitled "An Act relating to the sale and lease of public free school and asylum lands, and to repeal all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith,"

Have had the same under consideration, and I am instructed to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it do pass, with the following committee amendments:

(1) "Amend by striking out all that part of Section 1 which imposes a penalty upon the Commissioner of the General Land Office for failure to furnish the county clerk of the county with a list of the unsold lands in their respective counties.

(2) "Amend Section 3 by striking out all after the words 'southwest corner of Cochran county' down to and including the words 'southwest corner of LaSalle county,' and inserting the following: 'thence east to the northeast corner of Lynn county; thence south to the southeast corner of Lynn county; thence west to the northwest corner of Borden county; thence south to the southwest corner of Howard county; thence west to the northwest corner of Glasscock county; thence south to the southwest corner of Glasscock county; thence east to the southeast corner of Glasscock county; thence south to the southwest corner of Irion county; thence east to the northeast corner of Schleicher county; thence south to the southwest corner of Menard county; thence east to the southeast corner of Menard county; thence south to the northwest corner of Mason county; thence east to the northwest corner of Gillespie county; thence south to the southwest corner of Gillespie county; thence east to the northwest corner of Kendall county; thence south to Bandera county; thence southeast along the line of Bandera county to Bexar county; thence along the line between Bandera and Bexar counties and the line between Bandera and Medina counties to the northwest corner of Medina county; thence south to the southwest corner of Medina county; thence east to the northeast corner of Frio county; thence south to the southeast corner of Frio county; thence east to the northeast corner of McMullen county; thence south to the southeast corner of McMullen county.'

(3) "Strike out Section 4 and insert in lieu thereof the following: 'Any person entitled under the law to purchase school and asylum lands, and who has heretofore leased or may hereafter lease any such lands, or the assignee of such lessee, shall have the right at any time to purchase any or all sections of lands so leased by him on which there are improvements of a permanent nature of the reasonable market value of five hundred dollars on the same terms as other purchasers of land of like character, except said improvements shall not be estimated in valuing the land, and said purchaser shall not be required to reside upon and improve said land, and said sections so purchased by him need not be situated within a radius of five miles of each other, and in addition to each section on which he has five hundred dollars worth of improvements he may buy another section on the same terms, and in addition to each section on which he has one thousand dollars worth of improvements he may buy two sections on the same terms; provided, that not exceeding four sections shall be sold to the same purchaser, and the sections on which there are no improvements must be within five miles of the improved section. Any such lessee of his assignee who is holding under lease any of said lands at the time this act takes effect in any of the counties situated south and west of the lease line established by the Act of 1897, and north and east of the absolute lease line established by this act, shall have for ninety days from and after this act takes effect a preference right to purchase any of his leased lands on which there are improvements of a permanent nature of the reasonable value of five hundred dollars on the terms and conditions specified in this section.

(4) "Amend by adding after the words 'purchase made during said time,' in Section 3, the words 'and the party purchasing under this provision any of said lands situated west of the absolute lease line, if within the inclosure of another, shall be required to fence it with such fence as will prevent the passage of his stock before he is permitted to turn loose any stock thereon; and any violation of this provision shall subject the party to a fine of one dollar for each head of stock so turned loose and each thirty days' violation shall constitute a separate offense.'

(5) "Amend Section 3 by inserting before the words 'any land situated in the absolute lease district' the words 'unless otherwise provided herein.'"

HARRIS of Bexar, Acting Chairman.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 20—MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE CALLED UP.

Senator Johnson called up the motion to reconsider the vote by which the Senate adopted House Concurrent Resolution No. 20, made by Senator Dibrell (see action the first part of today's session), and moved that the same be tabled.

(Lieutenant-Governor Browning in the chair.)

Motion to table prevailed.

SENATE BILL NO. 16—CALLED UP WITH HOUSE AMENDMENTS.

Senator Davidson of Galveston called up for the purpose of considering House amendments

Senate bill No. 16, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 4445 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, and to authorize railroad corporations to acquire right of way for the purpose of shortening the line or reducing the grades, and to acquire land for reservoirs for water supply, and to provide that the limitation of width prescribed in Article 4425 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas shall apply only to real estate acquired for right of way; and to provide that real estate, or any interest therein, that may be acquired for any purpose other than right of way, need not adjoin or abut on the right of way."

The Chair laid the bill before the Senate, with the following House amendments:

(1) "Amend by striking out the words 'required for,' in line 5, of Article 4445, and inserting the words 'necessary for' in lieu thereof.

(2) "Amend also by inserting the words 'for the construction of' before the words 'reservoirs for the water supply,' and amend the caption by striking out all the words after the words 'An Act to amend' and insert in lieu thereof the following: 'An Act entitled "An Act to amend Article 4445 of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, and to authorize railroad corporations to acquire new right of way for the purpose of shortening the line or reducing the grades," being Chapter 68 of the General Laws of the State of Texas, passed at the Regular Session of the Twenty-sixth Legislature, and to authorize railroad corporations to acquire new right of way for the purpose of shortening the line or reducing the grades, and to acquire land for the construction of reservoirs for water supply, and to provide that the limitation of width prescribed in Article 4445 of the Revised Civil Statutes shall not apply to real estate acquired for purposes other than right of way, and that such other real estate need not adjoin or abut on the right of way.'

(3) "Amend by adding after the word 'change,' line 13, page 2, Section 1, the following: 'And provided further, that no railroad corporation shall have the right under this act to condemn any land for the purposes mentioned in this section situated more than two miles from the right of way of such railroad corporation.'"

Sec. 3. Provided, however, that with the exception of the appropriation made for the account of the State penitentiaries and Assistant Attorney General, that the Comptroller of Public Accounts is hereby instructed to draw no warrant against any appropriation made for the various State institutions and departments of this State unless an itemized statement, under oath, be filed as a voucher in office of said Comptroller.

Sec. 4. It is hereby required of each and every institution of this State to keep an itemized account and record of all moneys received from sales of all property, products, animals and leases of property; and the managers, presidents and superintendents of all such institutions shall cause to be made semi-annually to the Comptroller of Public Accounts an itemized statement, showing all such sales and moneys recieved therefrom and from such leases: provided, that the Superintendent of Penitentiaries and the Regents of the University shall not be required to do more than is at present provided for by law, and they are exempt from the operation of this section.

Sec. 5. The fact that there is no appropriation for the support of the State government from March 1, 1901, to August 31, 1901, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and this act take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
